INSTRUCTIONS FOR ENTRY

Essays must be unpublished, entirely the work of the entrant, must not have won any other awards and must not contain the authors name or identifying marks in the body of the work.

Essays are to be a minimum of 1000 words and a maximum of 2000 words and must address the theme “Global warming is a myth!”.

While appropriate colourful language is acceptable within moderation, entries must not contain extreme foul language, racial or sexually explicit content that would render the entry unsuitable for publication.

Enter as many times as you like - separate entry forms are required. (Entry forms may be copied).

Stories must be received in hard copy format printed on white A4 paper together with an entry form. In addition an electronic copy must be emailed as an attachment to info@services.une.edu.au . Please note that entries will not be returned.

Stories should be delivered to the Services UNE Student Support Office or posted to Services UNE Ltd, PO Box U52, UNIVERSITY OF NEW ENGLAND ARMIDALE NSW 2351. Receipt by 4pm on 24 August 2009 is essential - late entries will not be accepted.

Services UNE Ltd reserves the right to reproduce entries free of charge in any Services UNE publication or website or sponsor’s publications or website. Apart from this, copyright resides with the entrant.

Prizes will be awarded at the absolute discretion of the Judging Panel and Services UNE and no correspondence will be entered into regarding the decision by the Judges. Judges reserve the right not to award prizes.
